

GAPSA Lecture Series

Provost Peter Stearns: Challenges ▶▶▶ in Higher Education Today

GAPSA is pleased to announce the inaugural lecture in the "GAPSA Lecture Series." Our first speaker will be Provost Peter Stearns. The goal of the series is to provide useful lectures on a broad range of topics that apply to disciplines across the university.

The inaugural event will take place on Monday, March 1st, 2010 in the Edwin Meese Conference Room in Mason Hall. The title of his talk will be "Challenges in Higher Education." The lecture will be followed by a brief Q & A session. Refreshments will be available at the lecture. Immediately after the event, GAPSA will host a Happy Hour at The Mason Rathskeller.

If you have ideas for future lecturers or would like to be a part of lecture planning, please email gapsa@gmu.edu.

Peter N. Stearns became Provost and Professor of History at George Mason University on January 1, 2000. He has taught previously at Harvard, the University of Chicago, Rutgers, and Carnegie Mellon; he was educated at Harvard University. Dr. Stearns has authored or edited over 100 books.

Event:

"Challenges in Higher Education" - Provost Peter Stearns

Date:

Monday, March 1, 2010

Time:

5:45PM - 7:00PM

Location:

Edwin Meese Room
(Mason Hall)

Sponsored by Mason's Graduate and Professional Student Association (GAPSA)

About GAPSA:

GAPSA serves as the student government for all graduate and professional students at George Mason University. Our goal is to unite graduate students and establish a forum through which graduate and professional students are able to address issues, advocate for the greater good, grow professionally, and socialize with one another.

