The next Graduate Student Assembly will take place on Nov. 21, 2019. In this session, the topic of discussion is graduate student compensation and funding. We will also have Dr. Laurence Bray, Interim Associate Provost for Graduate Education as a guest speaker. The purpose of the Graduate Student Assembly is to provide an avenue for Mason's graduate students to share concerns, suggestions, and feedback relating to their graduate student experiences at Mason. The assembly is a by-invite only event where each attendee represents a graduate program at Mason. If you have any questions or concerns that you want to be represented at the assembly, email gapsa@gmu.edu and let us know the program you are in.
